HARVEST SUNDAY Sunday, November 22, Tucker Zimmerman with Chester County Young Life will be bringing the message.

We will be collecting for the Octorara Food Bank. With the many needs in our community, the food bank is experiencing a rapid turnover of food. Most needed now are Thanksgiving side dishes of boxes of mashed & scalloped potatoes, stuffing and gravy. The food bank also purchases supplies using cash and grocery gift cards which you are welcome to give. Please bring your donations to the church entryway or place in the back of Pete & Becky B's's car next Sunday.

The food cupboard sent a note of heartfelt thanks for the donation of 318 lbs of food from our previous collections.

PENNINGTONVILLE PRESBYTERIAN FREE THANKSGIVING MEALS Saturday, November 21, 12:00 -1:00pm. The church invites all retired Atglen friends or over age 60 to pick up a Thanksgiving meal at 406 Main St., Atglen to enjoy at home. Carryout only or delivery is available if needed. If you are able, please bring a non-perishable food item to donate to the local food cupboard. For reservations, please call 610-593-2173 by Monday November 16.

Applications are also on the outdoor table with other periodicals.
